

Mike Mora

Mike is a Specialist at the Organization of American States, in Washington DC, Department for Effective Public Management, Secretariat for Political Affairs. He currently serves as the OAS Cadastre Coordinator and as lead specialist on electronic government. He is responsible for coordinating programs and projects of the OAS portfolio of the Network of Electronic Government Authorities of Latin America and the Caribbean (RedGealc) and the Inter-American Network of Government Procurement (RICG) previously; were he served as Technical Secretary until March 2014. Mike also has a vast experience on municipal management modernization and capacity building programs for public officials; all lines of work for what he has been responsible for at the OAS throughout his years at the Organization.

Mike has been with the OAS since 2007 and holds a Master's Degree in International Peace and Conflict Resolution from American University in Washington DC. He graduated from Universidad Jorge Tadeo Lozano in Colombia where he received his degree in International Relations. During his career he has worked with the Public, Private, NGOs, and Diplomatic sectors.

More information:

