Flights:

We recommend making reservations for roundtrip flights, as far in advance as possible and directly with the airlines or travel agencies. International flights to and from Washington D.C. arrive and depart from Dulles International Airport and Ronald Reagan National Airport.

Several airlines operate international routes, for example: Aeromexico, Avianca, Copa, American Airlines, Lan Chile, Lan Perú, United Airlines, Delta Airlines and others.

Country entry and exit requirements:

Participants requiring visas should apply accordingly at the US Embassy or Consulate of your country home or place of residence.

Transfer from airport to hotel:

Delegations are advised to use the taxi services at the Airport or Uber at the Reagan Airport the metro also can be taken: www.wmata.com

The distance between the Ronald Reagan National Airport and the downtown is about 5.6 miles, about 18 minutes by taxi. The distance between Dulles International Airport and the downtown is about 27 miles, or about 45 minutes by taxi (depending on the traffic).

Currency:

The currency in US is the American dollar. Credit cards (Visa, MasterCard or American Express) are generally accepted at most hotels and businesses. ATMs that operate 24 hours a day are available at hotels, shopping centers and near banks.

Weather:

Washington DC is in the humid subtropical climate zone and exhibits four distinct seasons. Spring and fall are warm, while winter is cold and summers are hot and humid.

The average temperature

The average minimum temperature for the week in which the events will take place will be 21.3°C / 70.3°F 15.2°C / 59.4°F. Please refer the following page: www.twc.edu
