

50 OAS Policy Roundtable
Latin American Economic Outlook 2013
PANELIST BIOS

Mario Pezzini

Director of the Development Centre, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)

Mr. Pezzini joined the OECD in 1995 where he has held multiple positions, including Principal Administrator of the work on Distressed Urban Areas, Head of the Rural Development Programme, Head of the Regional Competitiveness Division and Deputy Director of the Public Governance and Territorial Directorate. Mr. Pezzini has taught Industrial Economics at the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Mines de Paris as well as at universities in the United States and Italy.

Ines Bustillo

Director of the Washington Office, United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC)

Ms. Bustillo joined ECLAC in 1989 as an Economic Affairs Officer working on a variety of topics, including macroeconomic analysis, international trade and finance. Previously, Ms. Bustillo taught Economics at Universidad Anáhuac in Mexico City and at American University in Washington D.C. She has also held positions at the World Bank, the Center for Latin American and Monetary Studies (CEMLA), and Operadora de Bolsa. Ms. Bustillo earned M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in Economics from American University.

Maryse Robert

Director, Department of Economic Development, Trade and Tourism, OAS

Ms. Maryse Robert joined the OAS in 1995 as Senior Trade Specialist and served as Chief of the OAS Office of Trade from 2006 to March 2012. She has taught at The University of Barcelona, UWI-Cave Hill, Georgetown University and George Mason University. She holds a Ph.D. from The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University and a Master's degree in Applied Economics from HEC-Montreal. Before joining the OAS, she worked on trade and development issues at the World Bank and the United Nations, and in the private sector on telecom issues.

Daniel Runde

Director, Project on Prosperity and Development, Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

Mr. Runde is the William A. Schreyer Chair in Global Analysis at CSIS. He is Chairman of the Society for International Development, and member of the Advisory Boards of the UN Development Program's Growing Inclusive Markets Initiative. Before joining CSIS, Mr. Runde was head of the Foundations Unit at the International Finance Corporation (IFC) and Director of the Office of Global Development Alliances (GDA) at the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID). Mr. Runde received a M.P.P. from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University and a B.A. from Dartmouth College.

Francisco X. Santeiro

Director, Customs and Regulatory Affairs, Latin America & Caribbean Division, FedEx Express; Advisor, Association of American Chambers of Commerce in Latin America (AACCLA)

Mr. Santeiro has been involved with the international express industry since 1980, representing FedEx on various industry-related boards and associations, including the Association of American Chambers of Commerce of Latin American (AACCLA), where he serves as Chairman of the Trade Facilitation Committee and the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Santeiro has served as President of the Latin American Conference of Express Companies (CLADEC). He holds a B.S. from the University of Florida, M.B.A. from Florida International University, and M.A. from the School of International Studies at University of Miami.

Peter Hakim

President Emeritus, Inter-American Dialogue

Mr. Hakim served as President of the Inter-American Dialogue from 1993 to 2010. He serves as a Board member of Mexico's Foreign Affairs Latin America and editorial advisor to the Americaeconomia magazine. He was Vice-president of the Inter-American Foundation and worked for the Ford Foundation. He taught at MIT and Columbia University, and served on boards and advisory committees for the World Bank, Council on Competitiveness, Inter-American Development Bank, Canadian Foundation for Latin America (FOCAL), Partners for Democratic Change, and Human Rights Watch. Mr. Hakim holds a B.A. from Cornell University, M.S. in Physics from the University of Pennsylvania, and M.A. of Public and International Affairs from Princeton

University's Woodrow Wilson School.